

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.

RULE & RICKS, Proprietors.
 FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1871.
THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
 Of Any Daily Published in East Tennessee.

NEWS SUMMARY.
 John Slidell died worth nearly a million.
 The cotton seed oil trade is getting to be a big thing in Menphis.
 The Great Industrial Exposition at Cincinnati is a grand success.
 Bret Harte is going to Europe to sing of the "Heavenly Chinese."
 Horace Greeley has been addressing an audience of Indians at Neenah, Wisconsin.
 Nashville has paid lawyers' fees within the past six years to the amount of $36,000.57.
 Gov. Holden has taken a position on the editorial staff of the Washington Chronicle.
 F. A. Tyler has severed his connection with the Memphis Appeal, for personal and financial reasons.
 Senator Thurman seems to have tired of the Ohio campaign and is preparing winter quarters in Washington.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITIONS.
 We are pleased to note the success of the various Industrial Expositions, Fairs, &c., throughout the country. The Grand Exposition at Cincinnati is largely attended by men from all over the country, and it is gratifying that the products of so many of the Southern States are to be found there. We hear also of vast preparations for the fall fairs at Savannah, Atlanta, Montgomery, Nashville and other Southern cities. It shows that some of the people, at least, are turning their attention to the sources from whence our material welfare emanates. It is gratifying to see that the industrial classes are taking a pride in their various pursuits, and that they wish to profit by each others' experience. Nothing does more to get up a spirit of worthy emulation among farmers and mechanics, than a comparison of what they have respectively done, and for this reason, these gatherings are profitable.
 In connection with these remarks we would call attention to our own Eastern Division Fair, to come off next month, and to the various county fairs to be held this fall. They should all be extensively patronized, and we trust they will be. The protracted drouth of this summer and fall will prevent our farmers from making as creditable a display of the products of their farms as they otherwise would, but let them come any way, and bring along with them the best of their grain, fruit, potatoes, &c., as well as the "fruits of their loins," and it will do them and do others good. Let there be a general attendance at all these gatherings.

HOW WE MIGHT INCREASE IMMIGRATION.
 The New York Tribune says the South should encourage immigration by a systematic advertising of her advantages. The Lynchburg Virginian endorses the suggestion and illustrates its force and wisdom by comparing the rapid growth of the North-west with the South. The former, it says, is active and liberal in the matter of sending broadcast pamphlets and newspapers giving the price of lands, the demands for labor and the advantages of climate, &c., &c. All this work is done there by co-operation. A live public spirit second individual enterprise, and by combined effort, the great work is accomplished. On the other hand, it says, the South is slow to resort to such enterprises. It leaves to individual work what clearly belongs to public effort, and gives the great bulk of mankind to infer from it want of combined action, what is really true of some sections—an absolute hostility to immigration. The Tribune and Virginian are both right. We have reason to know that the men who come South to prospect for homes, have a strong counteracting influence constantly before them, in the enterprise and vim of the Western real estate agents and companies advertising their advantages as a section. We know, too, that where, by private effort, one newspaper or pamphlet from the South reaches Europe, or the thickly populated Eastern States, ten and twenty reach those places from the West. If one-third of the money expended by the West in this respect was judiciously used by the South in the same way, we would reap a richer reward in population and capital.
 The West has another great advantage over us not alluded to by either of the above papers. They show unmistakably by their enterprise, legislation and works, that they want immigration. They exert themselves to attract it and show by a generous welcome that they mean what they say. The West is not cursed with a class of men who are afraid to invite competition. They have no class of selfish creatures who want to fasten themselves upon the public by driving away all who are likely, by their enterprise, to come in their way. The people of East Tennessee want immigration. They want capital and enterprise, but there are some of their politicians and pretended leaders who want to repel all such help, for they know that with prosperity and a healthier and more liberal public spirit, their day of ascendancy is ended. They try to break down their rivals in business, not by honorable competition, but by arraying against them local and partisan prejudices. If a new enterprise is inaugurated, and it conflicts with their interests, they avail themselves of mean passions to break it down, no matter what the public suffer thereby. Such spirits are easily marked, for you hear them always bitterly denouncing new citizens as adventurers, &c. What we want is to break down such selfish creatures, and by a healthy public sentiment give the world to understand that we want immigration and by our works show that we will protect and encourage the interest of all who come to make their homes with us.

 With such a public sentiment and our many advantages as a section properly advertised, we see no reason why we should not have a rapid increase in population and wealth.

The Tammany thieves, closely pressed by an indignant body of plundered taxpayers, have been compelled to resort to desperate tricks to try to cover their bold frauds. It was once a very common saying among soldiers that a battle or a captured baggage train always settled the "Quartermaster's accounts." The loss of "vouchers" has covered many a fraud, and so thinks "Slippery Dick Connolly." His trick is not so shallow, however, as most at first supposed. The abstraction of the vouchers is not to be relied on as embarrassing a settlement. Not so plain a trick for "Slippery Dick!"
 He says in his letter declining to resign, that "no serious mischief" will be experienced, for his office has "ample abstracts of all the stolen papers." Ah yes! "Ample abstracts." The stolen vouchers out of the way, how easy to make the professed duplicates tell any story needed! If the originals were to be produced, any mutilation or forgery might be detected, but with them out of the way, how simple the work becomes! We readily believe Mr. Connolly, that "no serious mischief" will result. The credulous can easily be persuaded that the duplicates are correct copies, and the shrewd may be baffled to supply proof of all the forgeries and mutilations they know have been made. But these things only make still plainer the astounding frauds perpetrated, and show how fearfully corrupt the city was governed.

OHIO.
 There is evidently something nauseous to the Democrats in the contemplation of the Ohio campaign. The party there has nothing left to infuse life and vitality into its ranks, and it seems to have settled down with the conviction that overwhelming defeat is inevitable. We have conversed with gentlemen just from that State, who are well posted and reliable, and they say that no well informed Democrat expects anything else but defeat. They expect Gen. Noyes to be elected Governor by a majority, ranging anywhere from fifteen to thirty thousand.
 The New York Herald speaks of the canvass as follows:
 From the present indications in Ohio, McCook or Ewing, the result would be substantially the same—a Democratic defeat; for Ewing would come too late to rectify the damages resulting from the blunders of McCook on the "new departure." Ewing, therefore, may be excused in leaving the battle to McCook.

FOR THIRTY-ONE YEARS
PERRY DAVIS'
PAIN KILLER
 Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler on sea and land, and no one should travel on our LAKES or RIVERS WITHOUT IT.
PAIN KILLER was the First and is the Only Permanent Pain Reliever.
 Since the PAIN KILLER was first introduced, and met with such unsurpassed sale, many Panaceas and other remedies have been offered to the public, but not one of them has ever attained the truly enviable standing of the PAIN KILLER.

WHY IS THIS SO?
 It is because DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is what it claims to be—a Reliever of Pain.
Its Merits are Unsurpassed.
 If you are suffering from Internal Pain, twenty or thirty drops in a little water will almost instantly cure you. There is nothing to equal it. In a few moments it cures Colic, Cramp, Spasms, Heart-Burn, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Flux, Wind in the Bowels, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache.
 In sections of the country where FEVER AND AGUE
 prevail, there is no remedy held in greater esteem. Every housekeeper should keep it at hand, to apply to on the first attack of any Pain. It will give satisfactory relief, and save hours of suffering.
 Do not trifle with yourselves by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine PAIN KILLER, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.
 Directions accompany each bottle.
 Price 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1 per Bottle.

WILL ALL THOSE WHO SUFFER FROM CONSUMPTION OR COUGH Please Read the Following Letter
 From a Reliable Druggist?
 MOUNT VERNON, ILL., April 20, 1871.
 Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio:
 Gentlemen—I heard one of my customers speak in such high terms of Allen's Lung Balm to-day, that I thought I would write you the substance of his statement. He says his mother, who is now sixty years of age, has suffered with consumption for several years, and has been under the care of all our best physicians, but never received any permanent benefit; then she read the advertisement of Allen's Lung Balm in the Christian Advocate, and they thought they would procure and try it. They commenced giving her the Balm at 5 o'clock P. M., as directed, a dose every hour until midnight; then she took another spell of coughing, and expectorated a mouth full of dark yellow matter, which was something she had not been able to do for some time. They continued to give her the Balm until morning, and then she began to expectorate freely, and within two hours she had expectorated three pints of muco-purulent matter, which gave her immediate relief, and since that time she has continued to improve. She now sits up all day, and can walk about the house and take her usual out-door exercise. Her cough has been more of the Balm to-day, and he is recommending it very highly to every one.
 Was there ever greater proof of merit than the case this letter refers to?
 ALLEN'S LUNG BALM is without doubt the best expectorant remedy ever offered to the afflicted public. It contains no opium in any form, and its use is harmless to the most delicate.
 Directions accompany each bottle.

Cherokee Pills No. 2
 For the Removal of Obstructions to the Insurance of Regularity in the Course of Monthly Periods.
 These Pills are an unfailing Female Regulator, intended for special cases; those obstinate ones where milder and cheaper medicines fail.
 They are composed of the most active and powerful principles of plants, roots and berries, so highly concentrated that each pill contains more medicinal strength than a whole box or bottle of ordinary dollar medicine in the market. Although powerful, yet so mild and pleasant in their operation, that the most feeble can take them with perfect safety.
 They may be safely used at any age,
 and at any period, EXCEPT DURING THE FIRST THREE MONTHS, during which the unfailing nature of their action would infallibly prevent pregnancy.
 All letters seeking information or advice will be promptly, freely and discreetly answered.
 Each box contains about 100 pills, and is wrapped in white paper printed in deep red letters, with full and explicit directions enclosed.
 Sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of price, $5, per box.
 The Cherokee Pills No. 2 are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of this; those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money. As you value your health, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these $5 pills, and take no others. If the Druggist will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter and we will send them to you by mail, free of postage, securely sealed from observation.
 Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.
 Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms, and write Post office, County, State and name of writer,
 and enclose postage stamp for reply.
 We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet, entitled "Man and Woman as Invalids," to every reader of this paper.
